

Tiba USA

Your Partner for Project Management in North America

The core competence of Tiba is the introduction and optimization of Project Management. Through its management, consulting and training services, Tiba has supported leading companies worldwide since 1989 whose business success largely depends on the quality of their Project Management.

Tiba's group of companies includes a comprehensive portfolio of services and the goal of solving all Project Management issues. With its experts and partners from various academic disciplines, Tiba ranks among the top consulting firms for Project Management.

Range of services

Tiba offers a complete range of management, consulting, training and operational support in Project Management, Process Management and Change Management.

Experts on Demand:

Consultants, trainers and project managers matching the individual project requirements cover temporary shortages of workforce and/or know-how. Tiba always has the right person regardless of the industry, the type of project, the country and the language. The six-level Tiba Qualification Model will always guarantee that the right person who ideally fits our Clients' specific project requirements, both on the operational level as well as in the consulting project business will render the necessary services, from the Project Assistant to the Program Manager, from the Junior Consultant to the Management Consultant.

Consulting:

Project Management: Development, implementation and optimization of company specific, customized Project management models, Program and Project Portfolio Management; set-up of PMO (Project Management Office)

Process Management: Worldwide optimization and visualization of processes, introduction of process landscapes, standardization, optimization and implimitation of Product Development Processes as well as IT-processes

Change Management: Change Management of strategic initiatives consulting on change projects, establishment of Change Management, set-up of Change Management processes and tools

Digital Transformation: With the well-known project management competence of Tiba and based on extensive experience with and in the industrial internet the competence center „Digital Transformation“ offers exactly the services that a company entering into digital businesses needs most

Training

Face-to-Face Training (F2F): Competence based personell development for project leaders by the optimization of career models, Project Management training courses, leadership training courses, etc. as well as customized, modular and standarized concepts for F2F training courses

eTraining: Most comprehensive online-based curriculum/Blended Learning Concept and innovative concepts for Virtual Classroom Training

Cert Training: Implementation of international certification programs PMI®, IPMA, PRINCE2®

Contact

Tiba LLC

30555 Southfield Rd. Suite 200

Southfield, MI 48076

USA

Phone: +1 248 633-6067

info@tiba-usa.com

www.tiba-usa.com